

Titles and Scenes of Lectures - Global Strategy Discussions - 4 to 8 June 1956
Declassified and Approved For Release 2013/04/02 : CIA-RDP80M01009A001402450003-1

Date and Day	Classes Attending	Lecture Title	Scope	Supports	Lecturer and Positions of Lecturers	Classes - Other Employment
Jun 4 Mon	All	Current World Situation	Current problems in the world today that particularly jeopardize the security of the U.S. such as Middle East Problems - Indonesia and SE Asia Problems - China Problems - German Problems etc. - Probably Classified	GSD	(1) PresNavWarCol (Note - GSD lectures & recommendations were prepared with guidance received from Capt. Burks - Dir. of GSD program)
Jun 5 Tue	All	National Strategy	This address should include, but not be restricted to, world-wide power politics; the struggle for power; the interests and objectives of the U.S. with alternative strategies for attaining them; the formulation and choice of national courses of action; the influential and constraining elements and factors affecting U.S. national strategy today, and in the foreseeable future.	GSD	Hon. Allen W. Dulles
Jun 6 Wed	All	Sea Power and National Strategy	(Title Self Explanatory)	GSD	Chief of Naval Operations Admiral Burke
Jun 7 Thu	All	Forces Producing the Present World Situation	Sociological, ideological, moral, economic, geographical forces affecting present conditions of cold war and potential forces of conflict in lukewarm war and hot war - with particular emphasis on East-West relations; the Uncommitted Nations; implications of the Bandung Conference; competition for men's minds, and American ideology. A critical analysis of the interdependence of forces in the European and Far Eastern theaters may be an appropriate final theme	GSD	Hon. Chester Bowles
Jun 8 Fri	All	Plenary Session		GSD		